to an emotional, powerful musical
on

Fleischmarkt 22,

Set to the backdrop of September 16th, 1963. The day after the bombing of the 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama. Nina Simone: Four Women follows the iconic sensation as she shifts her career from artist to artist-activist, as she believed, an artist's responsibility is to reflect the times.

Listen to their story, with a phenomenal cast singing some of Nina Simone's most popular Civil Rights anthems such as Mississippi Goddam, Go Limp, and Young, Gifted and Black to look at an artist and the women around her as their journey leads them down a path of discovery and healing.

"It's a show with bloody knuckles ... slow burn, dramatic knockouts."

Washington Post

"A remarkable show in many ways — it is totally different from any revue you ever saw."
