

Come & Sing!

in St. Stephen's, Vienna
November 3rd – 6th 2022

Dear friends of English choral music, we are very happy to invite you to the unique occasion to sing masterpieces of English Choral Music in Vienna and participate in the 32nd Come & Sing! - Festival for Choristers in St. Stephen's Cathedral, Vienna!

On the occasion of the 150th birthday of Ralph Vaughan Williams, a renowned choir director from the UK, David Wordsworth, was invited to conduct the workshops. Besides the music of RVW, you will work on music also composed in the UK, like Handel's Zadok the Priest, Elgar's Te Deum and Ireland's Great Love Hath No Man.

By the way, these composers have anniversaries in 2022 as well: the 60th anniversary of John Ireland's death and Edward Elgar's 165th birthday.

On the 5th of November, as a crowning finale, the works will be performed with organ and the excellent baritone, Henry Neill, in St. Stephen's Cathedral in front of a broad audience. All proceeds of the concert will be used for the restoration of the cathedral.
